

Alain Miranville

A Cahn-Hilliard model with dynamic boundary conditions

Our aim in this talk is to discuss the dynamical system associated with the Cahn-Hilliard equation with dynamic boundary conditions. Such boundary conditions take into account the interactions with the walls for confined systems. We are in particular interested in a model which accounts for the conservation of mass, both in the bulk and on the walls.