Vladimir Vasilyev

Wave factorization and parabolic equations

Earlier the author introduced the concept of wave factorization for elliptic pseudo differential operator to obtain solvability conditions for such equations in model non-smooth domains. One discusses the possibility for adapting this concept to parabolic equations and some starting results in this direction.