

Edgardo Stockmeyer

Localization of two-dimensional Dirac particles

As opposed to the non-relativistic case particles described by the Dirac operator can not be confined through electric potential walls. In this talk I will explain some of the differences concerning localization between non-relativistic and Dirac particles. Moreover, I will present some new results on the type of localization of two-dimensional Dirac particles in in certain electro-magnetic fields.